of art specifically interested in creating form, not content alone, but instead what is shown as forbidden evidence. That which challenges the conventional view and the comfort zone we tend to call REALITY.

This catalogue is an attempt at revealing the treasures and artifacts found in the shadows of the Internet of art. The words and guide lines were everywhere on the old pages, they were invisible in that amount but they were displayed necessarily in a new way. This exhibition tend to reveal their original colors, design in a new exhibition perspective and by doing so, celebrating the network where everything began.

LOVE AND POWER FROM THE INTERNET
